A Project for Youth

Beginning next week this newspaper will sponsor a project by which a local youth center activity will be reactivated. Specifically, it is a semi self-help activity designed for a growing group of 13-16-year old youngsters with problems.

We expect to generate a reasonable amount of money for it through the sale of newspaper subscriptions—and equally important, we shall be telling the developing story, week by week, so that those who wish to participate in this important and rewarding project may do so—to the extent of their interest.

The easiest way to give guidance to those who would help is through some simple questions and answers.

WHAT IS IT?

Oversimplified, it is a meeting place, professionally but casually supervised, where youngster can meet and visit with each other, play games, and put aside the worldly cares that have been suddenly thrust on them as maturing adolescents.

It is a two-day a week activity at the Lemon Grove Youth Center at 3145 School lane, near the L.G. Junior High School. Equally simplified, it offers this activity as an option for whatever other solutions problem-plagued youngsters seek.

It is an activity already in progress but drying up through lack of funds or citizen involvement.

WHAT DOES IT PROVIDE?

It provides an alternative for youngsters. Whether this affluent society likes it or not, youngsters from many middle-class homes are deeply involved in drug abuse, shoplifting, drinking, and sex experimentation. To get involved in these vices youngsters simply walk the streets seeking others of their interests. Paired off, there's nothing but trouble ahead. But in groups, a set of cultural standards usually evolve under the gentle persuasion of young, professional supervisors.

No one believes the youth center activity will solve all youthful problems. But it does offer an alternative.

WHY IS IT NEEDED?

An overriding desire of many youngsters is to "get away" from the pressures of his complicated society. As adults indulge in social and service club activities, some youngsters need to meet and "rap" with their peers. A need also is growing for venerable disease guidance. Last week two youngsters, one 14, got referral help from the Youth Center director. This aid is not available at schools, YC officers say.

A recreational program, designed expressly for such youngsters, is low-key and provides the alternative against activities that lead to vice.

WHAT KIND OF RECREATION IS PROVIDED?

The kids like to play pool and table tennis, toss footballs, baseballs and basketballs. They like to make tie-dye things, wax candles and string macrame. They also like making and hanging posters . . . and the fellowship of "rapping."

WHO RUNS THE YOUTH CENTER?

A group of local citizens—volunteers all, except for a paid supervisor. There is Len Farness, local businessman and long-time youth and church supporter; Frank Shughue, manager of the local First National Bank; and Verna Quinn, a homemaker and youth leader. Dale Wood, a 26-year old college student nearing his degree in physical education and education, is director. For its one year of operation, only Wood has drawn wages. Others, which include volunteer college students taking social work classes, draw nothing. The leaders contribute money as well as time.

WHAT ARE THE EXPENSES?

Rent is $40 a month. Wood, the director, gets $200 a month when there is money. It would take about $500 a month to meet normal obligations.

Two local service clubs and a small handful of generous local residents give an average of $200 a month. Explanation of the project by this newspaper should encourage other individuals and groups to become involved if it appeals to them.

WHAT IS THE CENTER'S OPERATING SCHEDULE AND WHAT GOES ON THERE?

Activity is now scheduled 3-10 p.m. on Fridays and 10-10 p.m. Saturdays. Currently, there is baseball and football tossing. The basketball is defunct. Pingpong games are played when there is enough money for paddles and balls. Youngsters spend hours hanging store-made posters and other hours making their own—when there are supplies.

Spirited pool playing is possible when enough cue sticks have been repaired to permit a game.

Bob Sutton To Replace Netzley As L.G. District Superintendent

ALL SMILES — Nearly everyone in attendance at Monday night's Lemon Grove School District Board of Trustees meeting was happy when the board announced that Dr. Robert Sutton has been selected as the replacement for retiring superintendent Byron L. Netzley, but nobody was quite as happy as Sutton himself, shown here as he accepts congratulations from Netzley, at right, and board president Bert Cosby. Netzley, who announced his retirement two weeks ago, will end his 30-year post with the district as of July 1.

Dr. Robert Sutton, assistant superintendent for educational services with the Lemon Grove School District, was named to replace retiring superintendent Byron L. Netzley next year at an eventful meeting of the district Board of Trustees Monday night.

Other action at the meeting included adoption of a preliminary calendar for 1972-73, report of the assistant superintendent for business services, and discussion and action on minority employment and community involvement.

Sutton, 49, has been with the Lemon Grove School District since 1951 except for a year's stay in Hawaii and a sabbatical leave. He has held such positions as fifth grade teacher, principal of San Miguel School and Lemon Grove Junior High, and various administrative posts.

In 1968, Dr. Sutton joined the district's administrative office as project director, moving up to the post of director of instruction in 1969 and assistant superintendent for instructional services in 1970.

In his new position as superintendent, the native of Minnesota will earn $26,500 per year, according to the terms of a four-year contract approved by trustees.

Sutton received his education at San Diego State College, where he earned BA and MA degrees, the University of Hawaii, and USIU, where he earned his doctorate in 1968.

He is married and has two teenagers, living in San Diego. He has been active in community affairs for many years and is a past president of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis, having been a member of that organization for 15 years.

Trustees, in announcing the selection of Sutton for the post, noted that they had looked within the school district in search of a qualified person to fill the job and decided unanimously that Sutton should be offered the position.

In other action, the board directed Sutton, in his position as assistant superintendent for instruction, to use "all out action" in recruiting minority

Artist Displays 'Young Hopefuls' At US Nat. Bank

The United States National Bank at 7946 Broadway, Lemon Grove, is currently displaying a group of photographic portraits of children ready for adoption. The portraits by Anthony Di Gesu of La Jolla will remain in the bank until March 24.

Currently there are fewer infants available for adoption, but more older children. It is some of these children that Di Gesu has captured on film to help stimulate an interest in their adoption.

Di Gesu, formerly of New York, has photographed many individuals including Peter Ustinov, Buckminster Fuller, William Shirer, U Thant, and ambassadors to the United Nations. His works have been shown at the United Nations, Washington D.C. and the Seattle World's Fair.

This series of portraits, entitled "The Young Hopefuls" represents a cross section of children ready for adoption through Adoption Services of San Diego County. Two children have been adopted since the photographs were taken, and two more are in the process.

New L.G. Park Likely At Mt. Vernon-Berry

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The County Board of Supervisors has applied for a grant of $31,000 for six acres of park land in Lemon Grove.

The request is to the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) under the Legacy of Parks program.

Because of deadlines, the application was made before the county board to hold a conference on whether to get back into the community park business.

The land is at Mt. Vernon and Berry streets.

Public Works Director David K. Speer said it is likely that the request will be granted. Acceptance by the county, he said, would commit the county to furnish matching funds.

Speer's justification to HUD says:

"Lemon Grove is in the process of preparing a community plan. For all of Lemon Grove there is only .6 acres of park per 1,000 population.

"Lemon Grove developed primarily in the decade of 1950-1960 without a plan. As a result there are only 400 acres of vacant land in the entire five mile study area. The area also has a high percentage of population in the lower income scale.

"No sites are available adjacent to a school and few other sites are available that are suitable for parks, and they are under pressure for development."

Tickets are $5 and reservations should be made at the Chamber of Commerce office at 3415 Imperial ave., Lemon Grove, or by calling the secretary, Mrs. Helen Myers at 469-9621.

George Tonner is chairman of the dinner.

Two Held In Robbery, Rape Case

Two escapees from the California Youth Authority institute at Chino, California, were arrested in Lemon Grove Monday and charged with robbery and rape.

According to reports from the Sheriff's Department, Vernon Lee Winter, 18, and Michael Edward McMullen, 21, were arrested after a five-hour search of the area around College Grove Shopping Center.

They are being held in connection with the knife-point robbery of Sandra Dianne Rohen in which two men robbed her in a local supermarket parking lot, escaping with $17.

Less than an hour later, it was alleged, the two entered a residence on Hibiscus st. and raped a 36-year-old woman before fleeing into a nearby canyon, where deputies found the two suspects.

LG Robbery Attempt Foiled At Cleaners

A slightly inebriated would-be robber was foiled in his attempt to gain entrance to the Speedway Cleaners on Broadway in Lemon Grove last week by an alert clerk.

According to Sheriff's Department reports, the would-be robber was observed loitering about the building at about 9 p.m. February 18.

After waiting on a customer, the clerk noticed that the suspect's appearance had changed — he was now wearing a nylon stocking over his face. The clerk quickly locked the door as the suspect approached and phoned the Sheriff's Department. After completing the call, the clerk noted that the suspect had fled the scene.

He was described as about 25 years old, 5-10 tall and weighing about 185 pounds. He had brown crew cut hair and wore Levis and a T-shirt and appeared to be drunk, according to the clerk.

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department, for the week of Feb. 21-28, answered four fire calls and two rescue calls.

Two of the fire calls had to do with automobiles; the most serious was at the Food Basket parking lot. There, a car belonging to William Caughkin, of 8735 Hartzell dr., Spring Valley, was damaged in the amount of $200.

Progress Told By Old Time Days Association

The Lemon Grove Old Time Days Association met last Wednesday night and decided to limit horses and motorcycles for the 1972 Old Time Days Parade and discussed plans for this year's celebration, to be held May 12, 13, and 14.

Much of the meeting was spent discussing the celebration's new feature, the Old Time Days Carnival, which will open May 10 and conclude May 14, the same day as the OTD Parade.

OTD President Ivan McDermott told association members that several novelty items have been sent to the association which could be sold at booths during the carnival's run. Items included string and bolo ties marked with the OTD insignia.

Gary Sweet and Jim Dorman are in charge of pre-sale tickets to the carnival, which will go at the rate of five for $1, representing a savings over the 30- and 40-cent prices to be in effect once the carnival is underway. The tickets will go on sale one month before the carnival.

It was also announced that space for booths at the carnival will be available to local organizations at no charge, although pre-constructed booths will be available on a rent basis.

For booth information, local groups are advised to telephone the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce.

Reports from parade chairman Bob Mastny indicated that many entries have been made, and plans for a dielectric band are underway.

Mastny said that no word has been received on the availability of the "STP Lemon-mobile" which has been seen on television.

Other entries which are expected include the U. S. Navy

Narcotics, Dangerous Drugs Bring Arrest

A Spring Valley man was arrested in Lemon Grove last week on charges of possession of narcotics and restricted dangerous drugs.

According to reports from the Sheriff's Department a car in which Otis S. Thompson was a passenger was stopped by the Highway Patrol in the 7400 block of Waite dr. and the driver was administered a sobriety test at 2:20 a.m. Feb. 25.

Thompson then was allegedly observed to throw a small plastic package containing a white powder believed to be heroin into some shrubbery along the roadway. Thompson was then searched and eight "mini-bennies" were found on his person, along with two second capsules and one "pink lady".

The driver of the car was released at the scene and Thompson was taken to County Jail.

NEW CHIEF — Lt. B. R. "Barney" Oldham, who lives in Lemon Grove on El Prado, has been named officer in charge of the Sheriff's Lemon Grove office. He succeeds Lt. Frank Hill, who has been promoted to officer in charge of the El Cajon station.

Lt. Oldham will supervise 36 patrol officers, 11 detectives, two office secretaries and a cadet. He has been associated with the Sheriff's Department since 1958 and taught police science at Miramar College during part of that time.

Much of his off-duty time is shared between two interests. One is church work. He is one of the active leaders of the L.G. Southern Baptist church. His other interest is muscle-toning. He jogs six miles three times a week.

His new assignment is now in effect.

Drum and Bugle Corps, as well as the Navy Flag Crew, a marching band from Ozzie's, nine other marching bands, and beauty queens from San Diego County communities.

Plans are also in the making to have this year's parade end near St. John of the Cross Catholic Church instead of having it turn on Kempf st., as it has in past years.

Mastny told those present at the meeting that he has been swamped with requests for entry from horse owners, and that he would like also to curtail the number of motorcycle units in this year's parade.

He cited motorbike units that have held up other parades and horse owners who appeared in parades in blue jeans and T-shirts that have little to offer parade watchers. No official action was taken on limiting the number of horses or motorcycles, but members generally agreed with Mastny.

George Tonner made a report on the OTD Kickoff Dinner, which will be May 5 at the Lemon Grove VFW Hall, with cocktails at 6:30 p.m. and the banquet at 7:30 p.m.

Tonner discussed the possibility of having a palm reader on hand at the dinner, but no definite plans were made.

Tonner also made a progress report on the job of securing a grand marshal for the parade. He said that Frankie Laine is definitely out, as he has another commitment. The grand marshal will be announced at the end of this month, Tonner said.

Bob Mills, Jim Hill To Star At L.G. Chamber Installation

Tickets have been distributed to members of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce members for the annual installation dinner at Lemon Grove's VFW Hall March 25.

The more serious part of the program will be the installation of Mike Carlin as president, succeeding Robert Russell. Other officers are Don Minnick, vice president; Al Woods, treasurer, and Gary Sweet, secretary.

The dinner will be a buffet for "Dollars" star and news-caster, will m.c. the affair. Jim Hill, the famed Charger free wine sauce and mushrooms. safety, will talk about the coming season and answer questions.

Tickets are $5 and reservations should be made at the Chamber of Commerce office at 3415 Imperial ave., Lemon Grove, or by calling the secretary, Mrs. Helen Myers at 469-9621.

George Tonner is chairman of the dinner.

Dear Editor,

You were a helping hand in the beginning of Toastmasters Spring Valley Club 2012 — then Lemon Grove 2012 — in the fall of 1955. Club 2012 has flourished and faded through several cycles since that time 16 years ago. It has just completed its most recent fade and gained the determination to flourish as never before.

Toastmasters, as you know, helps an individual gain self-confidence to stand before a group and competently express his ideas; i.e. improve his communication ability. It helps in person to person communication as well.

Club 2012 meets at 9125 Lamar street (Phone Company Conference Room) at 7:30 p.m. each Tuesday. We invite any man 18 years or older who is interested to visit to see if Toastmasters offers anything for him.

Further information can be obtained by calling Glenn Lindeneau, 466-5058.

Sincerely,
Glenn D. Lindeneau

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Empleo," pronounced "ehm-PLEH-oh" is the Spanish word for "job" or "employment." For example, we may say "El tiene un buen empleo." (He has a good job.) or "Desea usted un empleo?" for "Do you want a job?" Other expressions might be "El empleo es necesario para ganar dinero." (Employment is necessary for earning money.) and "El no tiene empleo." for "He does not have a job."

"Deber" is another way to express the idea of "job." We may see this used in expressions like "Mi deber es escribir cartas." (My job is to write letters.) and "Su deber es lavar los platos." (Your job is to wash the plates.) We may also say "Mi deber es cortar el pasto." for "My job is to cut the grass." or "Mi vida es un deber tras otro deber." (My life is one job after another.)

"Trabajo" is a common form for "work." We may use this to say expression like "Mi trabajo es facil." (My work is easy.) or "Su trabajo es muy dificil." for "Your work is very difficult." You may also say "Me gusta mi trabajo." (I like my work.) or "Mi trabajo es muy importante para mi." (My work is very important to me.)

"Chapuceria" is used to express a "hurried job" or a "botched job." With this we may say "No me gusta una chapuceria." for "I don't like a botched job." and "El no hace chapucerias." for "He does not do botched jobs."

Practice phrases listed below

reflect some of the varied uses of "empleo," "deber," and "trabajo." You may enjoy the learning experience of saying these phrases with the recorded voice that says them for you when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone. The recorded voice will say each word and then each phrase with a pause in between for you to repeat them.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

"Tiene usted un buen empleo?" (tee-eh-neh oo-STEHD oon boo-EHN ehm-PLEH-oh)
"Do you have a good job?"
"Tengo muy buen empleo." (TEHN-goh moo-ee boo-EHN ehm-PLEH-oh)
"I have a very good job."
"Cual es su deber?" (koo-AHL ehs soo deh-BEHR)
"What is your job?"
"Mi deber es escribir." (mee deh-BEHR ehs ehs-scrie-BEHR)
"My job is writing."
"No haga chapucerias." (noh AH-gah cha-poo-sch-REE-ahs)
"Don't do botched jobs."
"No los hago." (noh lohs AH-goh)
"I don't do them."

HOW'S YOUR HEART?

One in two, over 45, will die of heart attacks. This heavy toll of deaths can be stopped.

"YOUR HEART ATTACK CAN BE PREVENTED", written by victim of a heart attack, tells how he believes most heart attacks can be avoided.

CLASSROOM VISITOR — Television newsman and entertainer Bob Mills took time out last week to visit a second and third-grade class at Lemon Avenue School in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District to do his own taping and filming during a visit by two Indian children. The students were invited by the teacher, Mrs. Ilene Carpenter. Mrs. Carpenter spent last year on sabbatical leave from the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District to study the American Indian. Her travels took her to the east and west coasts. Not only did she research the history of each of the tribes, but she learned the art of their craft-making as well. Mrs. Carpenter is now sharing her learning with youngsters, parents, coworkers, and has been the featured speaker before various organizations.

S.V. Man Is New Analyst With P.W.C.

A Spring Valley resident has been named Marketing Research Analyst with the San Diego Navy Public Works Center's Management Office. He's Dr. David R. Stratton who lives at 3700 Helix st., Spring Valley with wife Marci and daughter Meri Lyn, 2.

"I'll be involved with developing a Customer Relations Program for the Center. I'll be looking at the marketing potential of the Navy Public Works Center which includes forecasting potential demand involving Center services and needs for new products and services," is the way Dr. Stratton explained his PWC job.

He comes to PWC from Honeywell Information Systems. He was employed as Senior Marketing Consultant involving data preparation, data communications devices. His background includes several years of experience in sales and sales management.

"I'm tremendously impressed with the efficiency of the PWC organization just from my first two weeks of observation," Stratton said.

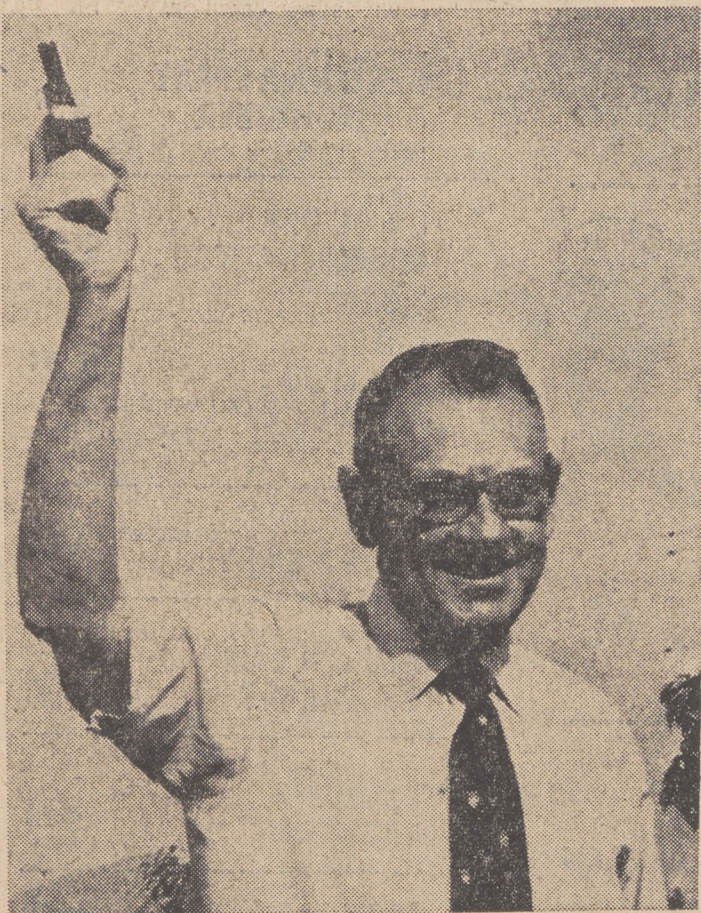

He earned his Bachelor of Science and Masters in Business Administration in Marketing from the University of Colorado. He later completed his doctorate requirements with the University of Texas for his PhD in Business Administration.

Development Seminar Set By Helix Club

Mrs. John Laughead, president of the Mt. Helix Business and Professional Women's Club of La Mesa announced that for the second year, a seminar on individual development will be held March 25 under the chairmanship of Mrs. Evelyn Foreman assisted by co-chairman Cherry O'Donnell.

The seminar is designed to encourage development of expression and competitive opportunities through club, district and state as outlined by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Ten species of doves are native to North America.

STREET WORK DONE — With a loud bang, La Mesa Mayor J. Robert Holland signalled the completion of the Jackson-Lincoln Street Realignment Project last Wednesday morning.

The $135,000 project was necessary to alleviate a traffic bottleneck created by the press of autos coming from and going to the Grossmont Center-Grossmont Blvd. complexes from the La Mesa Boulevard area. It included the widening of Lincoln Street for one-quarter of a mile from the Interstate 8 off-ramp to La Mesa Blvd. The widening changed the traffic pattern from clogged Jackson Street to Lincoln Street, allowing a free vehicular flow away from the shopping center and toward the downtown La Mesa specialty stores.

Students Set For March 11 'Breath March'

Over 300 students from Helix High School and Lemon Grove Junior High School will participate in the Third Annual Teenagers' "Never Take Breathing For Granted" Campaign March 11 rather than March 4 when volunteers from other schools will be marching for cystic fibrosis and children's lung diseases.

The March 11 date was chosen by Helix students because their nominating convention for school offices takes place March 4.

The Helix Key Club, led by president Russell Meek, is organizing and coordinating the major door-to-door public education and fund-raising campaign in the area for the San Diego County Chapter of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation. Councilwoman Maureen O'Connor and KDEO disc jockey Perry Allen are co-chairmen of the event.

The San Diego County Chapter supports the Cystic Fibrosis and Pediatric Chest Disease Center at University Hospital for the diagnosis and treatment of children with all chronic lung-damaging diseases including severe asthma, chronic bronchitis, childhood emphysema, and the genetic disease of cystic fibrosis.

C/F is inherited from both parents and is incurable. It is second only to cancer as the leading cause of death in young children.

'Women's Lib' Series To Continue Tonight

The popular series titled "Women's Emergence: From Adam's Rib to Women's Lib," presented by Grossmont College's Office of Community Services, will continue at 8 p.m., this evening, in the Fine Arts Lecture Hall, Room 220.

Moderated by Dr. Rose N. Somerville, assistant professor of sociology and family studies at San Diego State College, the program will be devoted to "Sexuality: New Perspectives on Woman's Needs and Abilities." The discussion, led by Dr. Lois Kessler, San Diego State College, will feature a student panel. A film strip "Masculinity/Femininity" will also be screened.

The public is invited to participate in this topic and challenging discussion series dealing with the women's liberation movement. There is no charge for admission.

one, as it will be held in the gymnasium under the guise of the student-faculty basketball game.

Before the annual game gets underway, the PTSA will hold a short business meeting which will include the election of officers for the 1972-73 school year.

Some of the members of the PTSA will be playing in the game, while others will make up a good portion of the audience. The public is also invited, with tickets available at the door for 50 cents.

Funds raised will be split between the PTSA and the athletic department.

Valley Grove Council

Election of officers and a presentation on year-round schools will highlight the 9:30 a.m. meeting of the Valley Grove Council of PTAs March 7 at the Skyline Wesleyan Church, 1330 Skyline dr., Lemon Grove.

Mrs. Kenneth Tibbetts, chairman of the Nominating Committee, will present the slate of officers for the coming year, and election will follow.

Dr. David Pascoe, Associate Superintendent of Schools for the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District, which presently has three schools on the Local Artists Due At Annual Art Mart Sale

A contingent of local artists will be among those who display paintings and other art forms this weekend at the San Diego County Art Mart Association's 18th annual Art Mart in Balboa Park.

The Art Mart will be from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday at the Association's new location at Park blvd. and President way, across the street from Naval Hospital.

Admission to the affair is free, and those who attend will enjoy such works of art as oil paintings, pastels, weaving, ceramics, pottery, leather goods, and sculptures. All items will be for sale.

A special attraction at the Art Mart will be a "mystery artist" who will make demonstrations at 2 p.m. both days.

Local artists who will display their wares include Jim and Helen Goodall, Emily Austin, H. E. Craddock, Hamilton Stalnacher, Robert Landry, Charles Kastringer, Buelah Greenlee, Nell Smith, and Lawrence Jones.

READY FOR RECITAL — Lee Clapham and daughter Barbara get some practice in before Sunday's recital at Lemon Grove Junior High School. Clapham, a local piano and guitar teacher, will sponsor his fifteenth annual winter recital. The program will get underway at 1:25 p.m. and will be presented in three parts.

Art Exhibit At Grossmont

The Smithsonian Institution's traveling art exhibit opened Wednesday at the Grossmont College library foyer and will be exhibited there until March 12.

The exhibit, "The Hand of Man on America" is a series of photographs by David Plowden and is currently touring the United States and Canada. Viewing hours are 7:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, and 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Bridges, buildings, railroads, highways and ferries make up the subject matter of Plowden's carefully observed, sharply focused compositions. Plowden has broken down his theme of "The Hand of Man on America" into five categories: Space, The Land Possessed, Habitat, A Rage Upon the Land, Neglect and Solitude.

Assembled from a larger exhibition shown at the Smithsonian Institution in the Fall of 1970, the photographs will be on display in the library through March 27.

LG Vogues Plan Dessert Fashion Show

"Fashions for Spring" is the theme of the dessert fashion show to be held by the Vogue Section, Lemon Grove Woman's Club March 13 at 7:30 p.m., in the Lemon Grove Woman's Clubhouse, 2810 Main st., Lemon Grove.

Mrs. Clyde West, chairman, promised models showing men's, ladies', teen-age, and even six year olds' spring fashions for 1972.

Door prizes will be given, and proceeds will go into the club's general philanthropic fund.

The assisting committee includes Mmes. P. N. Pantazopoulos, Jay Ross, E. G. Collier and Sherman G. Menard. Tickets, available to the public, may be obtained from committee members or Mrs. West.

Mrs. William S. Sayward was chairman for a committee serving sandwiches and cakes to the armed forces on February 10. She announced plans to assist in the "Walk for Mankind" and Project Concern April 29, at a recent Vogue meeting.

L.G. Band To Compete In Festival

More than 100 Lemon Grove Junior High School musicians will compete in the South County Band and Orchestra Festival at Crawford High School Saturday. The school is at 4191 55th st., San Diego.

Forty seven area groups from 29 high schools, 16 junior highs and two elementary schools, are to perform in the three-day festival activity which begins today and concludes Saturday evening.

Schools are placed in categories according to student enrollment and the bands and orchestras are judged superior, excellent, good, fair or poor for their presentations. In last year's competition, the Lemon Grove Junior High orchestra received a superior rating and the band won an excellent award.

The Trojan band, scheduled to play at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, will perform three selections: "Miniature Chorale and Fugue," by Charles Carter, "Prelude On An Odd Rhythm," by Philip Gordon and "Admiral Byrd," by G. E. Holmes.

The orchestra will play at 10:30 a.m. Saturday and its three selections are "The French Masters' Suite," in three movements, "Welch March," by Ralph Matesky and "Gallic Circle Dance," by Edward Jurey.

Musical director for the Trojan band and orchestra is Harry Weisgerber.

One-Act Playwriting Contest Winners Named

Two writers continued their winning ways in Grossmont College's Fifth Annual One Act Playwriting contest, it was revealed in a joint announcement of the winners made by James Baker, Martin Gerrish and Clark Mires of the college's Drama Department.

"An Act of Kindness," by Michael R. Eacchi, San Diego, San Diego State College student, was his first winning entry. "An Act of Kindness" will be directed by James W. Baker.

"Soft Rats and Pigeon Birds," by Carolyn Lane, former Grossmont College student now attending college in Iowa, is her second winner in the annual playwriting contest. Clark G. Mires will direct "Soft Rats and Pigeon Birds." Elizabeth Peterson's entry "What Would You?" is also her second winner. A Grossmont College student, Miss Peterson's one act will be directed by Martin F. Gerrish.

The three authors received $50 each for their winning entries. The plays were judged on their originality, literary merit, provocativeness and entertainment value.

'Race Against Cancer' Is Del Mar Feature

DEL MAR — Harness racers will make their only appearance of the year in San Diego County again in the annual benefit for the American Cancer Society Sunday.

The races will be informal, but they promise plenty of excitement as some of the top standard breeds, who are completing their winter training, charge down the back stretch at the famed Del Mar one-mile track on the county fairgrounds.

The six race admission-free matinee will begin at 1 p.m., Sunday and there's plenty of free parking.

Ernie Myers, a television sports personality, has agreed to race in a special event which could include several women drivers.

Cosponsors are the Del Mar and Solana Beach Chambers of Commerce in cooperation with Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism society.

Last year's event drew 5,000 persons who donated more than $1,000 for cancer research.

A no-host social after the races at Lomas Santa Fe Country Club will be highlighted by the presentation of trophies and awards.

Cancer society volunteers will circulate during the races to collect cancer fund donations.

Refreshments will be sold and portable restrooms will be available.

Nearly 2,000 more miles of the interstate highway system were opened in 1970.

EARLY FORM — Mt. Miguel High School track and field star Bob Soler is shown as he heaves the shot in competition at Mt. Miguel last Friday afternoon. Soler, who is entered in the shot put and discus throw, is expected to be among Mt. Miguel's top threats in the field events. He finished second last week in Mt. Miguel's 63-62 win over Pt. Loma. Annual Dance Set

The Spring Valley Little League will hold its annual "Get Acquainted Dance" tomorrow night at 9 p.m. in the Memory Lane Center Building off Bancroft dr., Spring Valley.

The local dance band will provide music and contests will be held with the top prize a Kirby vacuum cleaner. Other prizes include dinners at local restaurants.

Matador Spikers Outpoint Point Loma, 63-62

Point Loma's strength in the spirits enabled the Pointers to hold a 14-4 advantage in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, but Matador superiority in the distance races evened things up. Mt. Miguel had a slight advantage in the middle distances and the hurdles, but Pt. Loma won both relays to even things again.

Mt. Miguel's outstanding performers included Gary Trask, who won the 880 in 1:59.7, Joe Stubbs, who took the top spot in the mile with a 4:28.3 clocking, and Rick Debus, who nailed down the two-mile in 9:54.4.

In the field events, Mt. Miguel's sweep in the pole vault saved the meet, led by Norm Jimenez, who vaulted 12 feet. The meet was the first of the year for Mt. Miguel, a team which will be shooting for the top four in Grossmont League action. Favored to win the league crown this year is Granite Hills, with El Cajon Valley and El Capitan expected to provide good competition.

Mt. Miguel, Helix and Grossmont will battle for the fourth position, with Grossmont rating the best shot. Santana and Monte Vista will fight it out to see which one is the cellar dweller.

Monarchs Take Second

Mount Miguel Mat Team Wins Second Straight Championship

The Mt. Miguel High School wrestling team shocked area fans for the second time in as many years by claiming the San Diego C.I.F. championship last weekend at Palomar College.

The tournament, held Friday and Saturday, marked the second time in as many years that Mt. Miguel won the county crown after finishing second to an undefeated Monte Vista team in league action.

Last season, Mt. Miguel lost 40-10 to the Monarchs in league action yet pulled up 72 points in the CIF tourney compared with 44 for the Monarchs. This year, after dropping league meets to Monte Vista and Helix, the Matadors outpointed the second-place Monarchs 78½ to 63½ to win the title.

Monte Vista, qualifying 11 men in the tournament, was hurt in the early rounds when several key grapplers failed to make the semi-finals. Of the five wrestlers wearing Monte Vista colors who made the finals, three won individual championships and one finished second.

Robbie Hudson, Matt Taylor, and Steve Meyer took titles, while Dan Fleury settled for second place. Among those Monarchs who were beaten in earlier competition were Randy Fleury and Rick Morris.

For Mt. Miguel, seven wrestlers made the semi-finals and all seven won first, second, or third places, including individual titlist Ben Villareal and Miguel Cesena. Paul Hardin and Dave Morgan took seconds, while Mike Trebbien, Mike Rhoades, and Jim Minor took thirds.

Mt. Miguel and Monte Vista have now won all of the last eight C.I.F. championships between them, Monte Vista capturing five of those titles. Mt. Miguel has won three of the last five tournaments.

Looking to next year, the Monte Vista-Mt. Miguel dominance will more than likely continue, as the Monarchs have two champions returning and Mt. Miguel has one returning and two second place finishers coming back.

According to Mt. Miguel coach Ned Blass, his team got a good break when David Morgan, a sophomore wrestling in the heavyweight division, beat Helix senior Dennis Johnson, 5-4 in overtime. Johnson had won all four of the two's previous meetings.

Other wrestlers Blass was particularly pleased with included Paul Hardin, who took second place in the tournament.

Gulls Still Eye Playoffs As Home Play Dribbles Off

The San Diego Gulls, in a tight battle for playoff position, meet the league leading Denver Spurs tonight at the Sports Arena in the first half of a key weekend double header.

Face-off is at 8 p.m. Following tonight's game against the Spurs, the Gulls return to action at the Sports Arena on Saturday against the Salt Lake Golden Eagles, who are also in the battle for a playoff spot. The Eagles will play in San Diego to battle the Gulls again next Wednesday night.

The Gulls, who opened this week's activity in sole possession of fourth place in the WHL race, played in Portland last night in a game that was important as far as San Diego's chances of advancing in the WHL race.

The Buckaroos are currently in third place, but the Gulls do have a chance of overhauling them. "We still have a good shot at second place," said Gulls General Manager, Coach Max McNab. "It's up to us to put things together and start winning at home. We have ten of fourteen games at home starting with the game against Denver, and that's where we have got to make a move." The Gulls going into last night's game at Portland had a 3-7-2 record for their last 12 games and were 10-15-2 in the last 27 games.

On home ice, the Gulls carried a two game losing streak and have won only once in their last five home ice appearances with three losses and a tie.

The Gulls game against Denver tonight closes out the San Diego part of the series. The remaining three games of the series will be played in Denver. The series is all even at 4-4-2 with Denver holding a 3-1-0 edge in Denver and the Gulls carrying a 3-1-2 advantage in San Diego.

Bob Courcy and Willie O'Ree lead San Diego scoring against the Spurs with 10 points apiece. And Courcy leads in goals with five. Courcy and Gerry Goyer lead the series scoring against the Eagles with 14 apiece, and Courcy has nine goals to lead the series.

Comedians' Golf Game Date Moved

The 11th Annual Comedians' Golf Classic, previously announced for June 8-10, will, instead, meet on June 1-2-3, at the La Costa Country Club site of the Tournament of Champions.

Chairman, Comedian Jack Lemmon said that this year's get-together will be more like a comedy performers' convention what with special attention being paid to comedy people this year, including both comedians and comedy performers.

"The Comedians' Golf Classic has become a much-looked-forward-to event and we're lucky that we're able to hold it at a place like La Costa where we're all under one roof, so to speak, for three days," Lemmon said. "This gives us a great opportunity to discuss issues important to our profession while having fun and relaxing with great people."

"We hope the public will turn out — not only because we like an audience — but because handicapped children will benefit from the proceeds."

New President for SC1st

Angelo Adams, San Diego regional vice president for Union Bank since 1965, has been named president of Southern California First National Bank effective April 26. Adams, 51, will succeed Alden W. Johnson, president and chief executive officer of SC1st Nat. Johnson, who will be 65 in May, will continue to serve as president of SC1st Nat. Corp., the bank's parent company.

Wilson Wins Assembly Seat

Democrat Bob Wilson, in the stormy race for a ten-month term as 76th Assembly District representative, won election Tuesday's election, beating out Republican Jim Ashcraft by a slim 1,858 votes.

Wilson, 28, received 24,899 votes, or 47.7 percent of those cast, while Ashcraft drew 23,041 votes or 44.2 percent. The other candidates were American Independent Armin Moths, with 2,765, and Peace and Freedom candidate James Stronski, 1,349.

Wilson's win, although by a narrow margin, was seen as an upset over Ashcraft, as Republican candidates have won election in the district's last three elections, drawing over 60% of votes cast.

In crafts, it depends on whether or not there is wax for candles, string for macrame or stuff of tie-dye. There has been none lately.

Music and television watching, together with incessant "rapping" is just about the total program. An exception being a camp out trip if a bus and its funding can be arranged.

WHAT HELP WILL THIS NEWSPAPER GIVE?

Both professional and Youth Center youngsters will offer subscriptions. Of the $4 annual price, the salesperson gets $2. If he is a YC youngster, he will donate it to the Center if he wishes. The newspaper adds another 50 cents making the subscriber's contribution $2.50—and he gets the newspaper for a year. The professional may elect to keep the $2, but here, again, the newspaper hands 50 cents to the Center's operation.

Names of subscribers will be run in the newspaper from week-to-week for the record.

CAN YOU HELP DIRECTLY?

Of course you may. Call Farness at 463-3212, Shughrue at 294-4782 or Ferna Quinn at 582-5821 and arrange to give talent, money or equipment.

Your help will provide 100-150 temporarily troubled youngsters with an alternative. To them the feeling of pressures of school and home is very real. They feel a need for a place to "get away from it all". Worried youngsters tend to form cults. They will have one at the Center with supervision they will accept—or elsewhere with none. That is what the program is really about.

Today, many parents are wrestling with the fallout of seeing their youngsters "solving" their problems with drugs, alcohol or just resignation—problems that parents have tried futilely to help the kids resolve.

There are many fortunate families who have kids with no problems. They may not understand the importance of the Youth Center project. But to that great number going through the traumatic "lost youngster" experience, any alternative is a desirable and precious commodity. Your help is needed to nurture the program.

teachers and classified employees to fill vacancies as they occur.

The school district has been moving in the direction of hiring minority employees for the past several years, but an increase in minority students has left an imbalance in the number of minority employees.

Sutton reported to trustees that currently, 18% of the students in the district are of minority races or descent, while 6.1% of classified and certificated employees are minority personnel.

A contingent of black and Chicano residents of the district, under the guise of the "Broadway Heights Community Council" was on hand at the meeting voicing displeasure with the racial imbalance among employees, calling for increased hiring of minorities.

Trustees explained that there have been few qualified minority applicants, which has caused the district to be unable to keep up with increasing minority enrollment. Trustees agreed, however, to direct Sutton to use more vigorous recruitment in seeking black and Chicano personnel.

Gillman Joins Cowboys

Sid Gillman, coach of the San Diego Chargers for 11 years, has joined the Dallas Cowboys as head of a department called "research and development". He'll work with Tex Schramm, Cowboys' president and Tom Landry, the team's coach.

"Gillman," said Schramm, "will analyze personnel of opposing teams and assist with game preparations."

He is moving his home from La Costa and quitting his association with tv ch. 39 to join the Super Bowl champs.

Gillman turned down a post with the Pittsburgh Steelers as assistant coach prior to accepting the Cowboys position.

Naval Engineer To Speak To L.G. Kiwanis

Larry McKinley of the San Diego Naval Undersea Research and Development Center will be the featured speaker at the March 8 meeting of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis club.

A mechanical engineer in the Bio-Science Division, McKinley will discuss "See-See", the new research Catamaran, at a luncheon meeting, at the Brunswick Bowlero, 7065 Broadway, Lemon Grove.

Although now responsible for the design, development, analysis and testing of components and systems in support of division scientists at N.U.C., he first designed hardware ranging from warheads to air frames in the weapons development group at Naval Ordnance Test Station, China Lake, from 1957-1965. He was then transferred to the ocean engineering group at N.O.T.S. where he was appointed glass submersible project engineer until he came to San Diego in 1967.

Most people are familiar with the shark cage, which he designed as protection for divers while they work in the hostile undersea environment.

Counseling Seminars Planned For Pastors

Ministering to troubled people is a significant part of every pastor's daily activity. To assist pastors, Rev. Arthur G. Elcombe, Diplomat with the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, is leading a 12-week seminar at St. Philip's Episcopal Church in Lemon Grove.

"Although most church members can creatively use the resources of their church for themselves, there are specific times of distress and difficulty in which they turn to their pastor for specific help," said Fr. Elcombe.

Seminars are held Friday mornings from 8:30 to 10 a.m. with Fr. Kenneth Johnson, Rector of St. Philip's as host and are open to ministers who are particularly interested in the field of pastoral counseling.

He has lived in the Grossmont area which has comprised most of the 2nd District since 1953. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Divine of 9803 Ogram dr., La Mesa.

Divine said he thought the most important factor in the race would be the powerlessness people feel when confronted with governments which appear to be increasingly bureaucratic and expensive.

Stull to Run

Assemblyman John Stull, 80th Assembly District, Republican Caucus chairman, filed his nomination papers as a candidate for re-election Friday. He appeared with a group of supporters at the office of the Registrar of Voters in San Diego, shortly after 1 p.m.

The filing ended speculation that Stull might be a candidate for Congress in the newly created 42nd District.

Stull, a retired Navy Commander, is completing his sixth year in the Assembly. Originally elected in 1966 by an overwhelming majority of the vote, he has increased this majority in each succeeding election. In 1970, he received in excess of 72% of the total vote cast.

for such important regional issues as planning, transportation, and the environment," Divine said, "but I believe we must give adequate consideration to our approach."

"We must not create any third level of government, SANCOC and other such schemes would add further confusion and expense to our already overburdened tax rolls. In addition, such a plan would obscure the process by which decisions are made."

"The real solution," Divine said, "is an effective county government guided by Supervisors who are capable, responsible and, most important, directly accountable to the people. I'd like to be that kind of Supervisor."

Fashion Show Due

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 2082, Lemon Grove, will stage a "his and hers" fashion show tomorrow evening at 7 p.m.

Modeling fashions at the affair will be members of the auxiliary. Mrs. Frances Hughes reported. Apparell will range from "Surprise" to sun-set wear.

Garden Tour On Tap

The Garden Section of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club will tour the famous Quail Botanic Gardens in Encinitas March 7 after a regular business meeting at the clubhouse, 2810 Main st. at 10 a.m.

Members will furnish their lunches and birthdays will be acknowledged with cake and coffee served at tables placed under one of the exotic trees in the garden.

Wilson's NTC Talk Open to Public

Congressman Bob Wilson will discuss matters of importance to residents of San Diego County tonight when he speaks at 7:30 p.m. at Luce Auditorium, Naval Training Center.

He will discuss local military oriented organizations including NRA, NERA and ROA; Military Legislation; Federal Retirement Legislation; Widow Protection Plan; 80 Point Retirement Plan; One Navy Concept, and Protection of American Rights on the High Seas.

The meeting is open to the public. Visitors should enter gate E.
